

collaborative solutions for administrative challenges

There are some challenges that non-profits can't solve on their own.

MACC CommonWealth is a member-controlled, non-profit collaboration that creates innovative solutions meeting the administrative needs of Twin Cities non-profits.

Innovative solutions

MACC CommonWealth lets organizations focus on their mission while members work together to:

- Build administrative expertise
- Manage risk
- Control expense
- Provide scalable solutions

The best of both worlds

Every day, members of MACC CommonWealth leverage their combined size and relationships to create benefits for all members - without sacrificing their current culture, client relationships, and unique history.

A unique collaboration

MACC CommonWealth, a non-profit set up to support the work of other non-profits, is managed directly by its members. Our services and products continually evolve based on the direction our members provide.
